Dear Mr. Roever

DAVE

Thank you for making time to come speak to Minot Air Force Base personnel. Your message on the value of character was powerful, well communicated, and very well received. You and your professional team are a powerful tool providing hope and inspiration through your life and message.

People continue to talk about your exhortation to do the right thing and depend on God. The humor and charm you possess put the crowd at ease and gave an open door to communicate hope in adverse circumstances. Many have said how much they appreciated the message. Several who have attended previous character development speeches said this was the best.

Roever Ministries is a top rate organization and bent over backwards to serve us. I appreciate and thank you all for your unselfish contribution.

Sincerely
