SUBJECT: Dave Roeber As Guest Speaker

I want to personally thank Rev. Dave Roeber for serving as our guest speaker on 26 November 2001. Dave came at a time when we had a lot of soldiers deploying in the fight against terrorism. Although we were in the middle of deployments, we had some soldiers and officers who attended the event.

As our nation has been scarred by terrorism, Dave was able to articulate the power of our military to deal with those scars as he deals with his. The most powerful message he left with us is that God has trusted us with the scars of September 11, 2001. We must view those scars as a reminder that we are the protectors of our nation, and that God has given us the resolve to overcome and conquer all foreign and domestic enemies.

Dave's message of hope and encouragement, when facing tragedy, was on target during this time of separations from families and friends. His gifts of humor, genuine compassion, and his strong faith had people in tears and in laughter. Dave touched the lives of everyone present through his testimony of overcoming the ultimate challenge of life.

As always, Dave was a blessing to all in attendance. Thanks again for sharing your blessings with the soldiers, officers and civilians of Fort Gordon, Georgia.
